Dear Mr. Chairman:

I would be delighted to meet again with the congressional interns from Oklahoma. I thoroughly enjoyed the session last year. Hopefully, between us, we can provide these bright young people with a new perspective on the processes of our government and the role that intelligence plays -- and the cooperation that exists between us. As you suggested in your letter, your staff can contact [redacted] to arrange a date.

Sincerely,

[redacted]

Mr. Robert M. Gates
 Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
 Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Bob:

Each summer I have an extraordinary group of college students, mainly from Oklahoma, serve as interns in my office. This summer I will have twenty, in two shifts of ten each. They were selected from among over four hundred applicants. These interns are assigned substantive staff work and research projects for me.

In addition, I have six or eight sessions with outstanding guests and my interns and the interns from the other Oklahoma Congressional offices. The group usually numbers about thirty. I moderate these group discussions myself. They last from thirty minutes to one hour depending upon the time constraints on our guests. The discussions, held in my office, are informal with half the time given over to questions and answers and are off the record.

I hope that you will consider joining us and sharing your insights with these gifted students. We have had very distinguished group of guests in the past and they have all told me that they enjoyed the experience as much as the students. I have thoroughly enjoyed all of them myself and have learned a great deal in the process.

Our interns will be in Washington from May 31 to August 5. A member of my staff will be calling your secretary soon to see if it might be possible for you to set a date with us. I hope that you can come.

Sincerely,

 David P. Boren
 United States Senator

P.S. We'd love to have you back.
